RESOURCES/USEFUL INFORMATION

Do You Know a Really Great Teacher?

Here's your chance to honor your favorite Normandale faculty member. Up to three nominees will be identified as Normandale’s candidates for the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Board of Trustees Excellence in Teaching award. Please write a few sentences or more (50 words minimum) about what made that person such an excellent instructor for you. These are the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system's criteria; include as many as you can. Feel free to leave any out, though, if you have no knowledge about them or nothing to say. Thanks for supporting your Normandale Faculty!

- Skilled teaching that fosters student learning and adapts to student needs.
- Exceptional subject knowledge that is current and engages students.
- Assessment methods that include both grading and teaching for student success.
- High standards focused on student learning; with the support students need to reach them.
- Service to students, the college, Minnesota State Colleges and Universities, and the professional community.

Send an email with your nomination by 4 pm, Monday, Oct. 30, to Vice President for Academic Affairs, Julie Guelich, at julie.guelich@normandale.edu.

For further information, contact co-chairs Bridget Fitzpatrick at 952-358-9062 or Patrick O'Donnell at 952-358-8684.
