

Certificate Programs

Students seeking a certificate from Normandale Community College must successfully complete the certificate requirements determined by the specific program, which may include MnTC required credits.

Creative Writing Certificate

(Pending Approval)

The certificate program in creative writing is designed for the student who desires a concentrated course of study in the area of creative writing. The certificate is designed to provide the student with a body of work through a workshop courses that will assist the student in improving his/her technique and skill in creative writing. The student will also work to build his or her resume and portfolio before moving in to the professional arena.

Writing Core Courses: (19 cr)

ENGC 1101 Freshman Composition (4)

Upon completion of ENGC 1101, students will complete courses selected from the following: (15 cr)

ENGW 1111 Introduction to Creative Writing (3)
ENGW 2112 Poetry Writing (3)
ENGW 2113 Fiction Writing (3)
ENGW 2114 Play and Screenwriting (3)
ENGW 2115 Memoir Non-Fiction Writing (3)
ENGW 1900 Topics in Creative Writing (1-4)
ENGW 2900 Topics in Creative Writing (1-4)

Literature Courses: (10 cr)

ENGL 1150 Contemporary Literary Studies (3)
ENGL 2151 American Literature II (4)
ENGL 1130 Literature of Diversity (3)
OR ENGL XXXX Any other Goal 7 ENGL course, including but not limited to:
2130 African-American Lit
2131 Asian-American Lit
2132 Native American Lit

