Normandale Community College is asking you to provide data that includes private and confidential information under state and federal law. The college is asking for this information in order to process your application. You are not legally required to provide the information the college is requesting, however, the college may not be able to effectively process your application if you do not provide sufficient information. With some exceptions, unless you consent to further release of private information, access to this information will be limited to school officials who have legitimate educational interests.

Under certain circumstances federal and state laws authorize release of private information without your consent:

- To other schools in which you seek or intend to enroll, or are enrolled, if you are first notified of the release;
- To federal, state or local officials for purposes of program compliance, audit or evaluation;
- As appropriate in connection with your application for, or receipt of, financial aid;
- If the information is sought with a subpoena, court order or otherwise permitted by other state or federal law;
- To an organization engaged in educational research or an accrediting agency
