TITLE: SIGN UP FOR DIRECT DEPOSIT FOR EMERGENCY GRANT

From DOS@normandale.edu

Normandale is a recipient of federal funds as a part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act passed by the United States Congress in March 2020. Colleges and universities have received CARES Act funds to directly assist students who may be experiencing financial hardship as a result of COVID-19.

Eligible students will receive a payment by direct deposit to a banking account or a check mailed to your permanent address on record. To speed up your distribution of funds, we encourage you to sign up for Direct Deposit no later than 4 pm on Thursday, May 6. If you do not want to use Direct Deposit, make sure your correct address is updated here.

You can learn more about who is eligible for these grant funds at the Emergency Grant Funds webpage. You can check your eligibility for these funds on e-Services on Friday, May 8.

Sincerely,

Jason Cardinal

TITLE: IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT CARES ACT FUNDS

From DOS@normandale.edu

Normandale was a recipient of federal funds as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act passed by the United States Congress in March 2020. Colleges and universities have received CARES Act funds to directly assist students who may be experiencing financial hardship as a result of COVID-19.

All Federal Pell Grant recipients who were enrolled at Normandale as of March 6, 2020 and meet Department of Education and Minnesota State eligibility requirements will receive $600 in emergency funds. The funds will be issued to you by direct deposit or check.

Direct Deposit funds can take up to two business days to show up in your account. If you are not receiving funds through Direct Deposit, please make sure your correct address is updated here.

If you are attending more than one Minnesota State college or university, you may only receive a CARES Award from one school. All awards are dependent upon eligibility.

Normandale is here to help. We are all in this together!
