

FIELD TRIP GIFT OPTIONS—SCHOOLS, SCOUTS, EXTENDED DAY

A GARDEN OF MANY PARTS--Japanese Numbers for a Japanese Garden

This newly published book became available for purchase at the September Festival. Japanese numbers are used with original drawings and haiku descriptions of Garden attractions. Students and families will find the simple line drawings of Garden scenes just right for coloring or watercolors. Ben Wong and Brooke Coe did the drawings. Japanese Garden Committee member Val Wagner originated the idea and wrote the haiku. The cost is $10.00 and your donations support the Garden.

The worksheet that students use in the tour is based on our new coloring book. Students locate one waterfall, two shelters, three islands, four bridges, etc. . . as an introduction to our amazing Japanese Garden and they learn Japanese numbers 1-12.

Coloring Book

Ideas for using A Garden of Many Parts Coloring-book:

- Purchase multiple copies for the classroom:
  - As a pre-trip activity, teachers can distribute the coloring books (or cut apart and distribute pages of the coloring books) to the students to color and display in the classroom.
  - Teachers can use coloring books as prizes for classroom.
  - Students can color or paint with watercolors as a free time or art activity in the classroom.
- Make purchase of the coloring book an option on your field trip permission form so that interested parents may purchase one for their own child.

Other optional gifts include:

Japanese Garden Kit ($15 each) This is a "Lesson in a box" that includes both the Introduction to Japanese Gardens lesson and the reusable materials needed to design a Japanese karesansui (dry garden).

Normandale Japanese Garden—Celebrating a Dream ($15 each)—hardcover (discounted price), illustrated with beautiful color photos of our garden's authentic Japanese elements, the wonderful individuals, institutions and events that that built it, continue its care, shape its future.
